Dinner Video Honors 50+ Year Members

Ukiah, CA

The Greater Ukiah Chamber of Commerce recently honored it's members with fifty years or more membership during it's board member installation dinner. President and CEO of the Chamber, Cherie Blower, came up with the idea to honor the membership with a retrospective video produced by chamber member, Kirk Fuller of Fuller Digital Media. The five minute video included past and present photos, graphics and video put to the song "Celebration" by Kool and the Gang.

Members honored during the dinner presentation included: The City of Ukiah, Bank of America, Eversole Mortuary, SBC, The Ukiah Daily Journal, Savings Bank of Mendocino County, Mendo Mill and Lumber, Credit Bureau of Ukiah, Adelpia Communications and Ukiah Valley Medical Center. The dinner was held at the Broiler Steak House in January.

Fuller Digital Media specializes in audio, video and graphic design production for broadcast, print or the web. Most recently the company expanded it's abilities to include live event production and web casting. For more information go to www.fullerdigitalmedia.com.
